Delco Photographer Offers a Hand to Area Job Seekers

by KYW's John Ostapkovich

A professional photographer from Delaware County, Pa. was offering free business portraits and more on Wednesday.

The free shoot is the brainchild of Michael Albany (above) of Magick Michael Photography, looking to help those whom the economy has cast out:

"Most unemployed people do not have the money to go out and get a professional photograph. So you get cell-phone images on Linked In and Facebook and all those social media sites. So I figured they could do with good quality photographs."

The shoot location is a room off the lobby of the Greater Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce's office at 200 South Broad Street, which Albany got to use because he's a Chamber member. The shoot was accepting walk-ins until 4pm Wednesday.

Chamber CEO Robert Wonderling:

"There are ideas out there every day, and our role is to be a convener."

Also available at the session were a little free career counseling and résumé touch-ups.
